will change
for the better*

when we have the right

to marry the person we love

What if we told you there was one very simple thing you could do to help achieve equality for gay and lesbian people in Ireland?

December 2012 saw a new milestone in the campaign for marriage equality. The Constitutional Convention had its first meeting on December 1, and will make recommendations to Government on 8 issues including the provision for marriage equality. We need your help to make sure the Constitutional Convention makes a positive recommendation to Government to make marriage equality a reality in Ireland.

We want you to visit your local TDs and Senators over the next four months and ask them two very simple questions:

For Oireachtas members sitting on the Convention:

1. "Will you ensure that marriage equality is dealt with as soon as possible by the Convention?"
2. "Will you vote in favour of proposals introducing marriage equality?"

For all other Oireachtas members:

1. "If the Constitutional Convention decides that marriage equality needs a referendum, will you ensure that one is held as soon as possible?"

2. "If the Constitutional Convention decides that a referendum is not needed and marriage equality can simply be brought in through legislation, will you vote in favour of such legislation?"

You can find a full list of TDs on our website, along with a full list of all the Oireachtas members sitting on the Convention – www.marriageequality.ie. Then all you need to do is drop us a line: info@marriageequality.ie or call us on: 01-873 4183 and let us know their response to your questions.

By asking these simple questions, you'll be helping us bring marriage equality one step closer to becoming a reality in Ireland. We have a short window of time to ask these questions before the Convention wraps up looking at marriage equality, so now is the time for you to play your part.

So thank you for becoming a friend and supporter of marriage equality and all the people whose lives will be changed for the better when they have the right to marry the person that they love.
